Experience

Dan Fishburn is a Vice President with CBRE|MEGA.

As a child, Dan's family ran a package liquor store in South Omaha. Using his retail background, Dan tries to understand what the client's needs are and helps them achieve their goals through sensible real estate decisions. Outside of work, Dan stays busy with family activities that include sports, musical theater and landscaping.

Dan is an Omaha native and graduate of Omaha Westside High School. He played on the football team at Doane College in Crete, Nebraska, and finished his degree in Music Education at the University of Nebraska Omaha.

Dan began his real estate career in 1999 as a sales associate. He has been providing advisory services to owners and users of retail properties for over 18 years. His business has taken him throughout the southwestern and middle United States as a Landlord and Tenant Representative. Dan has developed strong relationships in the retail sector, having completed over 50 store openings for a single national retailer. Since the beginning of his career through today, Dan remains focused on retail projects.
